GLENDALE'S FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION SIZZLES

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Get fired up for July 4th fun! Celebrate America's birthday in style at Glendale's 4th of July Celebration presented by SRP at Glendale Community College with hotdogs, water slides, bouncies, music and fireworks.

The fun starts with free swimming at the GCC pool beginning at 1 p.m. Gates open for the event at 6 p.m., with free admission and free parking. Entertainment on the stage begins at 7 p.m., including a patriotic program and an F-16 flyover by Luke's 308th Fighter Squadron, followed by a performance by country and western band, Texas Toast and Jam. The spectacular fireworks display is scheduled to begin at 8:40 p.m.

Entertainment for children will include a magician on the kid's stage. Parents can keep little ones cool and happy with an inflatable water slide, or other inflatable games that will be available for a small fee.

Bleacher seating is available inside the stadium, as well as acres of grass for blankets and lawn chairs throughout the college grounds and at Sahuaro Ranch Park. Coolers will be permitted inside the stadium, but subject to search upon entry. However, glass containers and alcohol are prohibited. Food and beverages will be available for purchase inside the stadium, as well.
